Background and methodology

Equity-deserving communities

Calgary’s Equity-Deserving Communities (EDCs) are defined as groups of people who generally have less access to opportunities, resources, and systems of power because of their actual or perceived identity or identities. EDCs often experience social and financial disadvantages because of systems of oppression, which take many forms including, but not limited to, racism, sexism, and ableism.

The City aims to better understand the perspectives of equity-deserving communities through the lens of the annual Spring and Fall Surveys of Calgarians. The data in this report are from the 2026 Spring Survey of Calgarians. Inclusion in EDC groups is determined by self-reported demographic data from the general population survey. Both seasonal surveys are conducted in English to manage time and cost constraints. The City acknowledges that the ability to speak English may be a barrier for potential participants.

This report represents one of nine reports on equity-deserving communities, each focusing on a different EDC. The EDCs and their demographic variables are as follows, with the EDC category noted in bold text below:

Household income

<$60,000

$60,000+

Note: self-reported pre-tax annual household income.

Methodology

The telephone survey was conducted by Ipsos Public Affairs from February 17, 2026 to March 16, 2026 with 2,500 Calgarians. The average time to complete the survey was 29 minutes.

The survey was conducted using numbers from both cell phones (70%) and landlines (30%) to obtain a random and statistically-representative sample of Calgarians.

To ensure the data were gathered from a representative group of Calgarians, sample quotas were set by age, gender, and ward of the general population aged 18 and older.

Data were weighted based on the 2019 Municipal and 2021 Federal Census data for age, gender and quadrant to ensure the composition reflects that of the actual Calgary population aged 18 or older. Although the results are weighted, the sample size shown for each question represents the number of actual respondents (i.e. unweighted n).

The margin of error (MOE) for the total sample of 2,500 is ± 2.0 percentage points, 19 times out of 20. The margin of error for the Racialized sub-group of 602 is ± 3.99 percentage points, 19 times out of 20. The margin of error for each question will vary slightly depending on the total number of respondents who answered the question.

Interpreting results

Interpreting results

Not all questions asked within the Spring Survey of Calgarians are represented within this report. Results are compared between Racialized Calgarians and non-Racialized Calgarians. Statistically significant differences are noted throughout the report:

- ↑ indicates number is significantly higher than the other group.
- ↓ indicates number is significantly lower than the other group.
- * Some results in this report are subject to rounding adjustments.

Significant differences are an indication that a difference is not due to chance. A mathematical formula is used to calculate each difference independently. Whether or not a difference is considered significant depends on a few factors including the total sample size and the variability of responses. Larger sample sizes mean that smaller differences are significant. Additionally, variability of responses means that the more alike the responses are the more significant a change will be.

2026 Spring key findings

2026 Spring highlights (1 of 5)

Quality of life

Overall, Racialized Calgarians are rather positive about various aspects of quality of life. Many rate the overall quality of life in Calgary as good, and many also consider Calgary to be a great place to make a life and to make a living. Looking ahead ten years, however, only a small majority are optimistic that Calgary will be a better city.

A similar proportion of Racialized and non-Racialized Calgarians agree that:

- Calgary is a great place to make a life (74% of Racialized Calgarians and 75% of non-Racialized Calgarians)
- Calgary is a great place to make a living (67% and 68%)
- Calgary is on the right track to be a better city 10 years from now (55% and 53%)

There is a statistical difference between the two groups as well - a lower proportion of Racialized Calgarians considers the overall quality of life in Calgary to be 'good' (72% vs. 78% of non-Racialized Calgarians).

Overall satisfaction with City services

Services and programs offered by The City of Calgary receive positive feedback from a majority of Racialized Calgarians.

Racialized and non-Racialized Calgarians are similarly satisfied with the overall level and quality of City services and programs (64% of Racialized Calgarians and 62% of non-Racialized Calgarians).

2026 Spring highlights (2 of 5)

Satisfaction with City services

Racialized Calgarians are generally just as satisfied as non-Racialized Calgarians with 12 out of 15 City services. However, fewer are satisfied with Police Services. On the other hand, Racialized Calgarians tend to be more satisfied with Water Services and Planning & Development Services.

Satisfaction is similar between Racialized and non-Racialized Calgarians for most City services, including satisfaction with:

- Fire Services (88% of Racialized Calgarians and 91% of non-Racialized Calgarians)
- Waste and Recycling Services (77% and 79%)
- Parks (77% and 77%)
- Community & Culture Services (73% and 76%)
- Emergency Management Services (73% and 75%)
- Recreation Services (70% and 72%)
- 311 Services (69% and 72%)
- Bylaw Services (59% and 57%)
- Business Licensing & Support (54% and 53%)
- Transit Services (46% and 46%)
- Roads (40% and 39%)
- Housing Services (30% and 26%)

However, satisfaction differs between Racialized and non-Racialized Calgarians for the following City services:

- A lower proportion of Racialized Calgarians are satisfied with Police Services (65% vs. 70% of non-Racialized Calgarians)
- A higher proportion of Racialized Calgarians are satisfied with Water Services (61% vs. 47%)
- A higher proportion of Racialized Calgarians are satisfied with Planning & Development Services (52% vs. 43%)

2026 Spring highlights (3 of 5)

Usage of City services

Racialized Calgarians have higher use of some City services compared to non-Racialized Calgarians, notably Transit Services, Emergency Management Services, Business Licensing & Support, and Housing Services. Fewer Racialized Calgarians, however, have used Parks. For the remainder of City services evaluated, usage among Racialized Calgarians is not much different than non-Racialized Calgarians.

Use of the following services is similar between Racialized and non-Racialized Calgarians:

- Community & Culture Services (77% of Racialized Calgarians and 74% of non-Racialized Calgarians)
- Recreation Services (64% and 66%)
- 311 Services (52% and 57%)
- Police Services (34% and 32%)
- Bylaw Services (31% and 33%)
- Planning & Development Services (20% and 22%)
- Fire Services (13% and 15%)

The two groups differ statistically on the following:

- A lower proportion of Racialized Calgarians have used Parks (81% vs. 85% of non-Racialized Calgarians)
- A higher proportion of Racialized Calgarians have used Transit Services (73% vs. 65%)
- A higher proportion of Racialized Calgarians have used Emergency Management Services (37% vs. 30%)
- A higher proportion of Racialized Calgarians have used Business Licensing & Support (18% vs. 13%)
- A higher proportion of Racialized Calgarians have used Housing Services (11% vs. 7%)

2026 Spring highlights (4 of 5)

Taxation

Only a sizable minority of Racialized Calgarians feel they receive good value from their municipal tax dollars. When considering how The City should balance its budget, opinions are divided, with half preferring to increase taxes and a sizable minority opting to cut services.

For all taxation measures, there are differences between Racialized and non-Racialized Calgarians:

- A lower proportion of Racialized Calgarians perceive good value from municipal tax dollars (46% of Racialized Calgarians vs. 53% of non-Racialized Calgarians)
- A lower proportion of Racialized Calgarians prefer increasing taxes (50% vs. 60%), including fewer who prefer increasing taxes at the current inflation rate to maintain services (38% vs. 48%)
- A higher proportion of Racialized Calgarians prefer to cut services (45% vs. 34%), including cutting services further to reduce taxes (24% vs. 16%)

Customer Service

Racialized Calgarians largely find the quality of customer service from The City to be consistently good. A small majority also feel their expectations have been met, and they see The City making customer service a priority. Opinions are evenly divided on how quickly requests and concerns are handled.

Racialized and non-Racialized Calgarians have similar views on all customer service statements, including agreement that:

- The quality of customer service from The City is consistently high (59% of Racialized Calgarians and 61% of non-Racialized Calgarians)
- The City of Calgary meets customer service expectations (56% and 54%)
- The City of Calgary makes customer service a priority (53% and 49%)
- The City responds quickly to requests and concerns (50% and 49%)

2026 Spring highlights (5 of 5)

Trust and transparency

When it comes to aspects of trust and transparency, Racialized Calgarians have divided opinions. They hold mixed views on whether The City is open and accessible, and on the opportunities that Calgarians have for public input. Overall, trust in The City is evenly split among Racialized Calgarians as well.

The similarities between Racialized and non-Racialized Calgarians for trust and transparency measures include:

- Agreeing that The City of Calgary practices open and accessible government (51% of Racialized Calgarians and 48% of non-Racialized Calgarians)
- Agreeing that Calgarians have enough opportunities to provide input into decision making about City projects and services (48% and 43%)

There is also a statistical difference between the two groups, with a lower proportion of Racialized Calgarians saying that they have trust in The City of Calgary (50% vs. 56% of non-Racialized Calgarians).

Detailed findings

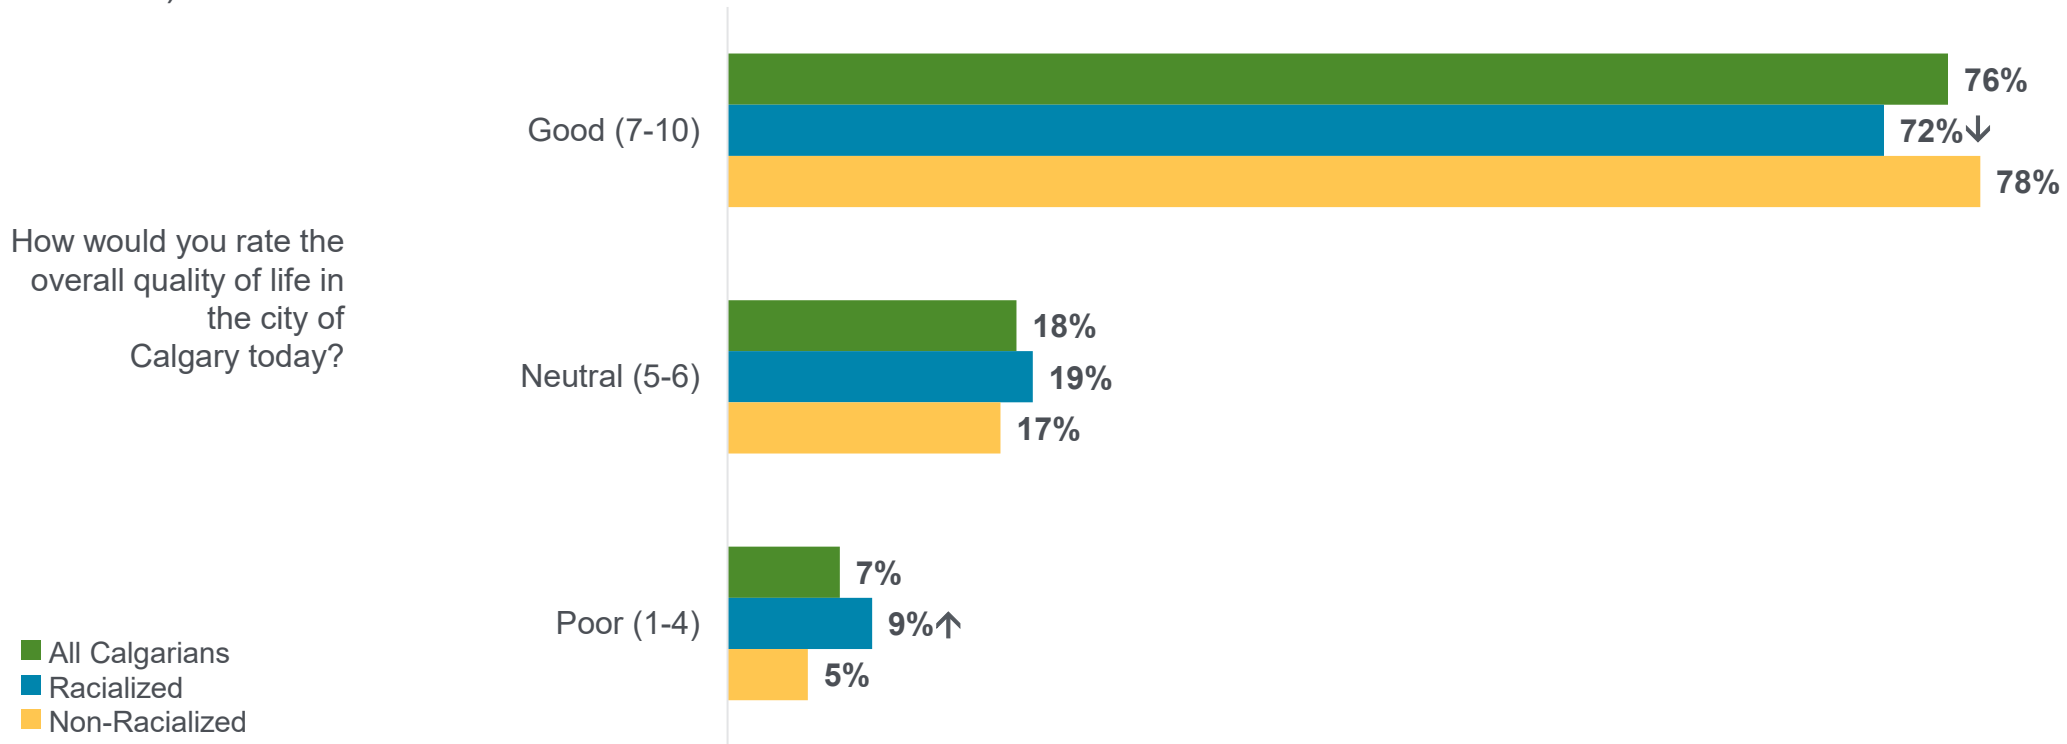

Quality of life

Overall quality of life in Calgary

Three-quarters (76%) of Calgarians rate the overall quality of life in Calgary as good. A lower proportion of Racialized Calgarians rate the overall quality of life as good compared to non-Racialized Calgarians (72% vs. 78%, respectively). Conversely, a higher proportion of Racialized Calgarians give poor ratings than non-Racialized Calgarians (9% vs. 5%). Meanwhile, neutral ratings are similar between the two groups (19% and 17%).
