Background and methodology

Telephone survey conducted with a randomly-selected sample of 2,502 Calgarians aged 18 years and older between March 2 and March 26, 2023.

- Both cell phone (60%) and landline (40%) sample were used.
 - The average interview length was 29 minutes.

Final data were weighted to ensure the overall sample's quadrant, ward, and age/gender composition reflects that of the actual Calgary population aged 18 or older according to 2019 Municipal and 2021 Federal Census data.

The margin of error (MOE) for the total sample of 2,502 is ± 1.96 percentage points, 19 times out of 20. The margin of error for the 2SLGBTQIA+ sub-group of 103 is ± 9.46 percentage points, 19 times out of 20. The margin of error of each question will vary slightly depending on the total number of respondents who answered the question.

Not all questions asked within the Spring Survey of Calgarians are represented within this report. Results are compared between 2SLGBTQIA+ and non-2SLGBTQIA+ subgroups. Statistically significant differences are noted throughout the report:

- ↑ indicates number is significantly higher than the other group.
- ↓ indicates number is significantly lower than the other group.
- * Some results in this report are subject to rounding adjustments.

Significant differences are an indication that a difference is not due to chance. A mathematical formula is used to calculate each difference independently. Whether or not a difference is considered significant depends on a few factors including the total sample size and the variability of responses. Larger sample sizes mean that smaller differences are significant. Additionally, variability of responses means that the more alike the responses are the more significant a change will be.

Equity-deserving communities

Calgary’s Equity-Deserving Communities (EDCs) are defined as groups of people who generally have less access to opportunities, resources, and systems of power because of their actual or perceived identity or identities. EDCs often experience social and financial disadvantages because of systems of oppression, which takes many forms including, but not limited to, racism, sexism, and ableism. The City would like to better understand the perspective of equity-deserving communities through the lens of the annual Spring and Fall Surveys of Calgarians. The data in this report are from the most recent (2023) Spring Survey of Calgarians, focusing on demographics of interest, specifically those that differentiate equity-deserving communities. Both seasonal surveys are conducted in English to manage time and cost restraints. The City acknowledges the ability to speak English may be a barrier for potential participants. Inclusion in all EDC groups is based on self-reported demographic data captured within the general population survey.

This is one report in an overall set of nine reports on Equity-Deserving Communities. Each report focuses on a different EDC. The EDCs, and the demographic variables used to categorize EDCs, are as follows, with the EDC category noted in bold text:

Key findings

Key findings

Quality of life

While the overall quality of life ratings are consistent regardless of 2SLGBTQIA+ status.

- 2SLGBTQIA+ and non-2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians agree at similar rates that the quality of life is 'good' in Calgary (78% vs. 79%).
- 2SLGBTQIA+ and non-2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians agree similarly that Calgary is moving in the right direction to ensure high quality of life (58% vs. 51%) and is on the track to be a better city (77% vs. 83%).
- While 2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians agree at slightly lower rates than non-2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians that Calgary is a great place to make a living (64% vs. 73%) or life (76% vs. 79%), the differences are not significant.

Inclusivity

Though 2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians have lower levels of agreement for inclusivity, differences are not significant.

- 2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians agree at lower but not significantly different rates than non-2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians that The City fosters a city that is inclusive and accepting of all (63% vs. 70%), removes barriers to participation for Calgarians who need it most (46% vs. 53%), and creates a city that is equally accessible for all (52% vs. 60%)

Green Line LRT

Overall levels of agreement regarding the Green Line's importance are consistent between groups.

- 2SLGBTQIA+ and non-2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians agree overall at similar rates about the Green Line's importance to Calgary's future, network system, and that it will enable Calgarians to be better connected with people, places and services.
- 2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians are more likely than those who aren't to say the Green Line is 'very important' to Calgary's future (87% vs. 76%), 'strongly agree' that it is an important addition to the transportation network (83% vs. 71%) and 'strongly agree' that it will better connect Calgarians (80% vs. 69%).

Key findings

The environment

Members of the 2SLGBTQIA+ community have more negative perceptions regarding the environment.

- Calgarians who identify as 2SLGBTQIA+ are less likely than non-2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians to rate the state of Calgary's environment as 'good' (88% vs. 94%) and more likely to rate it as 'poor' (12% vs. 6%).
- Those who are 2SLGBTQIA+ are less likely to be satisfied with the job The City is doing to protect the environment (68% vs. 85%) and with the programs and services aimed to reduce environmental impact (62% vs. 79%) compared to non-2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians.
 - Relatedly, 2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians are more likely to be dissatisfied compared to non-2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians with those (32% vs. 15% and 38% vs. 21%, respectively).

Service equity

2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians are satisfied at similar rates as non-2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians.

- Two-thirds (67%) of Calgarians are satisfied with the level and quality of services and programs, with no significant differences between 2SLGBTQIA+ and non-2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians (63% vs. 68%).
- When looking at individual services, 2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians are less satisfied than non-2SLGBTQIA+ with police services (62% vs. 80%).
- In line with satisfaction levels, 2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians also are less likely to want The City to 'invest more' in police services (30% vs. 66%) as well as fire inspection and enforcement (18% vs. 36%) compared to non-2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians.
- 2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians want The City to 'invest less' in police services at much higher rates than non-2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians (34% vs. 7%).

Key findings

Taxation

2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians perceive the value of tax dollars to be ‘good’ at similar rates non-2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians.

- 2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians are more likely than non-2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians to endorse an increase in taxes (74% vs. 54%) either beyond inflation to expand services (17% vs. 9%) or at the current inflation rate to maintain levels of services (57% vs. 44%).
 - Similarly, 2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians are significantly less likely to want to cut services compared to non-2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians (24% vs. 40%).

Customer service

Overall perceptions toward customer service at The City is consistent between 2SLGBTQIA+ and non-2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians.

- There are no significant differences between 2SLGBTQIA+ and non-2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians’ agreement toward the quality of customer service being high (69% vs. 72%), The City responding quickly to requests and concerns (60% vs. 66%), The City making customer service a priority (71% vs. 71%), and The City meeting their customer service expectations (78% vs. 78%).
- Both groups agree that City communication has been ‘good’ in the last 6 months (72% 2SLGBTQIA+ vs. 71% non-2SLGBTQIA+).

Key findings

Input from Calgarians

Calgarians identifying as 2SLGBTQIA+ agree at similar rates as non-2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians on aspects of input from Calgarians.

- Overall, for most aspects of input from Calgarians, both groups agree overall at similar overall rates, however, 2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians are more likely to 'strongly agree' on some items.
- 2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians are more likely to 'strongly agree' than non-2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians that The City allows meaningful input into decision making (24% vs. 16%).
- Overall, they are also more likely to agree than non-2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians that they are confident The City is working to improve how includes Calgarians' input (81% vs. 67%).

Reputation and performance

2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians trust The City and are satisfied with Council and Administration at The City at similar rates as those who are non-2SLGBTQIA+.

- 2SLGBTQIA+ and non-2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians trust The City at similar rates (57% vs. 48%).
- 2SLGBTQIA+ are more likely to agree that The City practices open and accessible government (31% vs. 19%).
- There are no significant differences between 2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians and non-2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians on satisfaction with The City as a whole (79% vs. 70%), City Council (64% vs. 60%), and City Administration (81% vs. 77%).
- Similarly, 2SLGBTQIA+ and non-2SLGBTQIA+ Calgarians hold similar levels of agreement toward beliefs that Council and Administration work collaboratively to make the best decisions for the future of Calgary (74% vs. 69%) and that The City manages its spending in a responsible way that reflects the needs and priorities of Calgarians (64% vs. 58%).
